

Shifting Baselines in the Southeast Florida Recreational Reef Fishery

A photographic account

Catherine Brady - Nova Southeastern University
Dana Wusinich-Mendez - NOAA Coral Reef Conservation Program

base-line

noun

1. a minimum or starting point used for comparisons.
(Google)

shift-ing base-line

adjective, noun

1. the chronic, slow, hard-to-notice change in things
(Shifting baselines.org)

Documenting Loss of Large Trophy Fish from the Florida Keys with Historical Photographs

Loren McClenachan, 2009
Scripps Institution of Oceanography

Shifting Baselines in the Southeast Florida Recreational Reef Fishery

Purpose:

To document the shifting baseline in the recreational reef fishery in the SEFCRI region through photographic records.

Methodology:

Research and collection of photos, both historical and present, from; fishing clubs, charter operators, IGFA archives and individual recreational fishers.

A Good day of fishin', then.....

Fort Lauderdale

Apr. 9, 1939

KELCY PHOTO

Bahia Mar

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA.

A Special Thank You to...

Kurtis Gregg, NOAA
Dr. Ken Banks, Broward County
Bill Stokell, Extreme Finishes
Gail M. Morchower, IGFA
Madsons Fishing
Lady Pamela II
Nikole Ordway. Force-E